

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY CONSULTATION REFRESHER TRAINING

Duration:

One full day

Who should attend:

All members of workplace based occupational health and safety committees and OHS representatives who have completed the four day training course or its equivalent.

Course Aim:

To provide participant with:

- An overview of current OH&S legislation relevant to consultation;
- An understanding of current approaches to hazard control, including risk assessment;
- An opportunity to review current procedures, and establish alternative approaches.

Content

- ☆ Review of legal responsibilities:
 - The OH&S Act 2000
 - Regulation 2001
- ☆ Code of Practice: OHS Consultation
- ☆ Review of corporate OHS programme
- ☆ Communication & Consultation
- ☆ Risk Assessment; current requirements including:
 - Employees role in consultation
 - Plant
 - Manual handling
 - Hazardous substances
 - All risks