Occupational Health and Safety Consultation

Accredited Training Course (NSW)

Course Aim:

“(This course) aims to familiarise participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to apply the principles of workplace OHS consultation as an integral part of an effective OHS management system (OHSMS). The course should also assist in the development of appropriate attitudes to enable OHS committee members and OHS representatives to effectively carry out their functions under OHS legislation.”

(From the Course Administration section of the trainers guide to the course.)

Duration:

Four days:
All seven elements of the course must be completed within a two month period.

Content:

1. Workplace Health and Safety
2. The role of consultation in the workplace
3. Effective OHS consultation in the workplace
4. Systematic management of Health and Safety
5. Action learning exercise
6. Continuous improvement of OHS systems
7. Summary and conclusion

Who should attend:

All employee OHS representatives; all workplace OHS committee employee and management representatives, in New South Wales. The course may be conducted for a maximum of twenty participants, however it is preferable to limit the number of participants to sixteen.

Proof of Identity: WorkCover requires that the trainer verify the identification of all participants. Participants will need to produce proof of identity.

Scheduling: WorkCover requires a minimum of one weeks notice prior to conducting this course.

Meeting the needs of your organisation

We run the course on your premises with case studies relevant to your industry, using your documentation and procedures.
